Senior Perfumer Olivia Jan joins drom's creative team in the United States

New York/Munich, April 4th, 2019 – drom fragrances, the globally successful fragrance house, announces the addition of Senior Perfumer Olivia Jan to its local team of perfumers in New York. Following the recent arrival of Jim Krivda, drom aims to further expand its U.S. business by adding top talents to its team of creatives.

Looking at over 22 years of experience in France and the U.S., Olivia Jan has been working across the categories of fine fragrance, personal care and air care. After her professional education at ISIPCA in Paris, she started her career at Robertet in Grasse, where she discovered her passion for natural raw materials. Since then, she continuously grew her knowledge in the creation of natural fragrances, making her an industry expert in this challenging field of fragrance creation.

"Perfumery is the heart of our business and we are thrilled to welcome Olivia Jan to our talented team of perfumers who bring our creative philosophy to life," says Bertrand Lemont, President drom USA. "Olivia joins us with tremendous experience in the U.S. market and is a skilled expert in the creation of all natural fragrances. Her enthusiasm, creativity and expertise are a great addition to the drom team and will support our ongoing growth strategy in the U.S. market."

In 2005, the French-born perfumer moved from Paris to New York to join Robertet's U.S. team, where she worked for 13 years until joining drom in November 2018.
