Highlights

General

Passengers can book the service regardless of their airline and booking class.

Guests can choose whether they want privacy (booking of an additional private suite) or the company of others in a common-use lounge.

Furnishings, facilities and decoration

The ambiance is comparable to that of a five-star luxury hotel.

Catering

A la carte catering; guests' special requests are gladly met.

Events and activities

Due to the landside location, the VIP-Terminal can be booked for exclusive events and be equally attended by non-travelling guests.

Amenities

Suites: TV, international print press, selected illustrated books.

Entire lounge area: high-speed Wi-Fi

Gaming Lounge: table soccer, board games, pinball, and arcade machines

In-lounge shopping: full range of Duty Free and Airport Shop offers available, including jewelry, handbags, designer fashion and high-quality liquor

Art

The lounge features art from various centuries: paintings by artists ranging from Johann Jakob Hoch and Giovanni Battista Piranesi to Christiane Baumgartner and Gideon Rubin, as well as drawings, etchings, and oil paintings from the 18th and 20th century.
