

David Landgrebe is the new Head of Shipping at Dr. Peters Group

Dortmund, 6. August 2018: David Landgrebe took over as Head of Shipping at Dr. Peters Group on 1 August 2018. From his new position in Hamburg, he will manage and further develop the maritime activities of the Dr. Peters Group. He will continue to be assisted by Marek Lipiec for technical management and Martin-Philippe Ervens for commercial management. David Landgrebe has many years of experience in shipping. He previously held management positions at HSH Nordbank, Peter Döhle and, until the end of 2017, at Ernst Russ AG.

As Head of Shipping for Dr. Peters Group, David Landgrebe will be responsible for expanding the operational shipping company activities as well as asset management. In addition to offering maritime investments for national and international investors, the primary focus here is on establishing the shipping division of the Dr. Peters Group as a full-service asset manager.

Anselm Gehling, CEO of Dr. Peters Group: “With David Landgrebe we have gained an experienced and recognised expert to lead our maritime activities. Together we will be expanding our business in the shipping sector in the coming years and will realise our growth targets both operationally and in the area of maritime investments.”
