Directorate Changes Atrium also announces that, following approval at a Board meeting on 24 November 2009, Neil Hasson and Noam Ben-Ozer have been appointed as non- executive directors with immediate effect, following the retirement from the Board of Shanti Sen and Peter Baguley.

Neil Hasson, managing director and head of Europe for Citi Property Investors ("CPI"), will be one of CPI's appointed directors on the Board. He replaces Shanti Sen who has stepped down from the Board following her resignation from CPI to pursue other business opportunities. Mr. Hasson joined CPI in February 2005 and is responsible for a EUR1.2 billion pan European real estate fund. Prior to joining CPI, he was a successful private real estate investor, acquiring in excess of £250 million of commercial real estate in the UK over a three year period. Previously, Mr. Hasson was a founding partner of DLJ Real Estate Capital Partners, a $660 million real estate opportunity fund, managed by Donaldson, Lufkin and Jenrette, where he worked for 10 years. From 1989, prior to DLJ, he worked for Goldman, Sachs & Co. in London, Tokyo and New York. He holds an MBA from The Wharton

School of the University of Pennsylvania and a B.Sc. in Electrical Engineering from the University of Cape Town.

Noam Ben-Ozer has been appointed to the Board as an independent non-executive director in place of Peter Baguley who has stepped down in order to ensure that Atrium's Board retains a suitably international representation overall that is consistent with the applicable fiscal and regulatory considerations and requirements relating to Directors' residency.

Mr. Ben-Ozer is the founder and proprietor of Focal Advisory, a strategic and finance-related advisory firm in Boston. He has extensive experience in financial and business planning, fund raising, deal structuring and project financing. He is also a director of Equity One, a leading US real estate investment trust. Mr. Ben-Ozer holds an MBA from the Harvard Business School.

Commenting, Rachel Lavine, Chief Executive Officer of Atrium European Real Estate, said: "We are pleased with the financial results of the Company and the progress we have achieved in the first nine months of 2009.

"We believe the Exchange Transaction, which was announced in September, to be an extremely positive step forward for Atrium, as it follows our clearly stated strategy of reducing our debt, having already acquired in EUR382.8 million of nominal value in 2009. It is also in line with our commitment to improving both the efficiency of our balance sheet and our corporate governance. This transaction will simplify Atrium's capital structure and significantly decrease its borrowing costs. Together with the completion of our Euronext Amsterdam listing, we are in a far more stable state than when we took control and are now shifting focus onto growth and the creation of value.

"Our strong cash position, low leverage, strong management team and resilience of our asset class leave me feeling confident of the future prospects of the Company.

Chaim Katzman, Chairman of Atrium, added: "On behalf of the Board, I would also like to thank both Shanti and Peter for all their hard work during their time at Atrium and to welcome our new directors, Neil and Noam, to the Company."
