Shareholders whose shares in the aggregate amount to five per cent of the share capital and who have held those shares for at least three months prior to the motion may request in writing that additional items be included in the agenda of the shareholders' meeting and that they be announced. Such requests must be received by the Company in writing exclusively at the address 4910 Ried i. Innkreis, Fischerstrasse 9, Investor Relations Department, Attn: Manuel Taverne by 24 June 2016. Every item so requested to be included in the agenda must be accompanied by a proposal for resolution including a statement of the reasons. To evidence the shareholder status for bearer shares kept in custody it is sufficient to present a deposit receipt as defined in Section 10a AktG which certifies that the requesting shareholders have held their shares for at least three months prior to the motion and such evidence must not be older than seven days at the time of presentation to the Company. Several deposit receipts for shares which only amount to 5% of the share capital in the aggregate must refer to the same date. As regards the other deposit receipt requirements reference is made to the information about the right to attend shareholders' meetings.

Shareholders whose shares in the aggregate amount to one per cent of the share capital may submit proposals for resolutions regarding any item on the agenda in text format including a statement of the reasons and request that such proposals be made accessible on the Company's website, including the names of the shareholders concerned, the reasons for the same, which have to be included, and comments of the Executive Board or the Supervisory Board, if any. Such request must be received by the Company in text format by letter to 4910 Ried im Innkreis, Fischerstrasse 9, Investor Relations Department, Attn: Manuel Taverne or by e-mail to investor.relations@facc.com by 6 July 2016 and the request must be attached to the email message in text format, e.g. as a pdf-file. A proposal for resolution which was announced in accordance with Section 110(1) AktG shall only be voted on if the said proposal is made again as a motion at the shareholders' meeting. To evidence the shareholder status to be able to exercise this shareholder right it shall be sufficient for bearer shares kept in custody to provide a deposit receipt in accordance with Section 10a AktG which must not be older than seven days at the time of presentation to the Company. Several deposit receipts for shares which only amount to 1% of the share capital in the aggregate must refer to the same date. As regards the other deposit receipt requirements reference is made to the information about the right to attend shareholders' meetings. At the shareholders' meeting every shareholder is entitled to file motions with respect to any item on the agenda that require no prior announcement. This requires evidence of the right to attend the meeting, i.e. an invitation to the shareholders' meeting. This does not apply to elections to the Supervisory Board. An application of a shareholder regarding the election of a member of the supervisory board mandatorily requires the timely submission of a proposal for a resolution pursuant to section 110 of the Austrian Stock Corporation Act, including a declaration pursuant to section 87 paragraph 2 of the Austrian Stock Corporation Act. For elections into the supervisory board (agenda item number 5) the following needs to be taken into account: in case of a proposal for the election of a supervisory board member the declaration of the proposed person pursuant to section 87 paragraph 2 of the Austrian Stock Corporation Act replaces the reasoning. This needs to be received by the company at the latest on 6 July 2016 and must be published by the company on the website mentioned in the commercial register at the latest by 8 July 2016; in case of an infringement of such deadlines the respective person may not be considered in the elections. When electing supervisory board members the shareholder's meeting shall take into account the criteria of section 87 paragraph 2 a of the Austrian Stock Corporation Act, in particular the professional and personal qualification of the members, a balance of professions of the supervisory board, aspects of diversity and of internationality as well as the professional reliability need to be taken into account.

At the shareholders' meeting every shareholder shall, upon request, be informed about company affairs to the extent that such information is required for proper assessment of an item on the agenda. The duty to provide information also includes the legal and business relationships of the Company to an affiliate. The duty to provide information also includes information on the situation of the group and the entities included in the consolidated financial statements. Such information may be denied if, according to the reasonable judgement of an entrepreneur, disclosure of the same might cause a material disadvantage to the Company or an affiliated enterprise or might be punishable. For reasons of procedural economy please submit any questions the answering of which requires an extended period of preparation timely before the shareholders' meeting via email to investor.relations@facc.com or by letter to the Company in 4910 Ried im Innkreis, Fischerstrasse 9, Investor Relations Department, Attn: Manuel Taverne.
