Board of Directors (Appointments and Changes)

The Supervisory Board of Semperit AG Holding has appointed Frank Gumbinger (48) as Chief Financial Officer for three years - until 31 December 2019 - as of 1 December 2016.

Born in Germany, Gumbinger studied Business Administration at the Goethe University Frankfurt. In addition to Accounting, Controlling, Tax, Treasury, Investor Relations, Internal Audit, Risk Management and Legal he will take over the Information Technology area. In his most recent position, Gumbinger was CFO of Progroup AG after holding various management positions in the Delton Group, most recently as CFO of the publicly listed CEAG AG. In each case as CFO, Gumbinger was also responsible for IT.

"With Frank Gumbinger we have won a renowned top manager for Semperit AG Holding. The Semperit Group will profit from his comprehensive expertise in the financial sector and his long-standing international experience. Frank Gumbinger perfectly complements the Management Board in order to ensure the positive future development of the Semperit Group even in challenging times," says Veit Sorger, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Semperit AG Holding, referring to the appointment of the new CFO.

As announced in September this year, the previous Chief Financial Officer (CFO) Johannes Schmidt-Schultes and Chief Information Officer (CIO) Declan Daly informed the Supervisory Board that they would not extend their mandates but take up new challenges. The two Management Board members of the Semperit Group have resigned from their positions as of 30 November 2016.

Therefore, the Management Board of the Semperit AG Holding will consist of Thomas Fahnemann (Chairman of Board, CEO), Frank Gumbinger (CFO), Michele Melchiorre (CTO) and Richard Ehrenfeldner (COO) as of 1 December 2016.
