THOMAS SABO presents: vividly coloured, special edition collection, 'Dragon Nights'

Lauf/Pegnitz (ots) -

Feathered dragon heads and intertwined ornaments define the exclusive 'Dragon Nights' edition collection from THOMAS SABO. Every design within the high-end collection, available from October, shows the affinity of the international jewellery and watch brand with Far Eastern mythology, combined with highest level of jewellery artistry that THOMAS SABO is known for.

The dragon as a sign of happiness and the "Shou" sign of the great blessing as a symbol of long life are the highly symbolic key pieces within the range. They make Far Eastern mythology tangible in modern context, combining it with the spirit of freedom and nonchalance of the 1970s. Every design of the handcrafted collection of around 70 items made of 925 Sterling silver, partly with 18k rose-gold plating, provides a special significance thanks to the colour intensity of the artistic stone embellishment and the enamel inlay work, which has been beautifully added to each piece using traditional techniques.

The Dragon Nights collection is available globally from 1 October 2017 in THOMAS SABO shops and shop-in-shops and at www.thomassabo.com.
