Freudenberg IT (FIT) Retains Microsoft Gold Partner Status for Cloud Platforms and Data Center Competencies

Weinheim (ots) -

FIT achieves Silver partner for Cloud Productivity and Data Platform

Freudenberg IT (FIT) has received confirmation from Microsoft of its Gold and Silver partner status in several categories. FIT will retain its Microsoft Gold partner status for the competencies Cloud Platforms and Data Center. This is an affirmation from Microsoft that FIT possesses exceptional skills in these focus areas. For Cloud Productivity and Data Platform, FIT has achieved Microsoft Silver partner status, highlighting its current capabilities, expertise, and dedication in these areas. "Our partnerships with Microsoft and SAP are the major pillars of FIT's strategy. That's why we are honored by this validation of our work, which involves Microsoft confirming our status in four partner categories at once," explained Tim Hallbauer, Global Director of Microsoft Services, at Freudenberg IT. "But we're not going to stop there. In fact, achieving silver status just motivates us to go even further. Next, we're going to go after a Gold partnership in Cloud Productivity as we continue to enhance our ability to serve our customers."
