THOMAS SABO collections radiate a paradisiacal variety of colours from 2019 (FOTO)

Lauf/Pegnitz (ots) -

Paradisiacal colours and a modern mix of graphic shapes are now joining forces at THOMAS SABO to create new items of jewellery that radiate happiness and positive energy. Developed with a keen sense for individual wearing experiences, the 'Paradise Colours' carry forth the high standards of design and quality for the jewellery and watch brand. The entire THOMAS SABO variety is represented in statements that range from summery-light to expressive, and their colourful trend is destined to inspire personal creations.

In their unique style, Creative Director Susanne Kölbli and Company Founder Thomas Sabo welcome all customers to a paradise of jewellery: Floral patterns and richly symbolic fauna motifs now broaden the portfolio of iconic Sterling Silver and of the lovingly detailed Generation Charm Club collection. The new items of jewellery create impulses full of joie de vivre and expressiveness and can be perfectly combined to create new looks. Many of the 925 Sterling silver designs, some of them plated in gold, are elaborately hand-crafted with harmonising coloured stones and shimmering mother-of-pearl.

The new designs for Spring/Summer 2019 will be introduced in several drops between mid-January and late March in all THOMAS SABO shops, at www.thomassabo.com and from selected partners.
