INVITATION: Edward Snowden in conversation with Wolfgang Kaleck - Law versus Power / 19 January, San Francisco

Berlin (ots) -

Why is resistance against authoritarian tendencies more important than ever?

Famed NSA whistleblower Edward Snowden and internationally renowned lawyer Wolfgang Kaleck discuss this question and talk about today's challenges and opportunities for human rights.

When: Saturday, 19 January 2019, noon - 1.00 pm

Where: Manny's, 3092 16th St, San Francisco

Kaleck, best known as Edward Snowden's European lawyer, is a human rights activist extraordinaire. For more than two decades, he has travelled the world to fight alongside those suffering injustice at the hands of powerful players. In his new book Law versus Power, Kaleck gives voice to those he represents, emphasizing the courage and persistence they bring to the global search for justice. Snowden contributed the foreword to this striking overview of the struggle for human rights.
