J.A.M. Distributing Company appointed as sole distributor for Infineum in the United States and Canada

J.A.M. Distributing, a Brenntag Group company, has been appointed as sole distributor for Infineum USA L.P. effective May 1st, 2019.

Having worked with Infineum since 1990, this latest appointment extends the relationship between the parties beyond their existing arrangements in Europe, the Middle East, Africa, Asia Pacific, and Latin America.

J.A.M. Distributing is a market leader in the marketing, formulation, and distribution of high value lubricant additives, base oils, and speciality chemicals. J.A.M. Distributing became part of the Brenntag Group in 2015 and operates across the United States.

Fabian Devita, Americas Sales Director at Infineum, commented on the appointment: "We want to expand our collaboration with Brenntag based on the knowledge, experience and a robust working relationship we have successfully developed with Brenntag in other regions. This appointment is an important strategic decision to catalyze growth in the region."

"We are excited to be a part of the expanding relationship between Infineum and Brenntag," stated Craig Goodrich, Vice President Lubricants, Brenntag North America. "Integrating the Infineum lubricant additives product line to our current speciality products offerings will undoubtedly add value to our customers."

The territory expansion of the relationship will help to further support customers and suppliers with Infineum lubricant and fuel additives products into the lubricants industry.
