"Recommended Headhunter of the Year" - award for "headhunter-hamburg.com" and "headhunter-cologne.com", brands owned by Gese & Cie. Personalberatung GmbH

München (ots) -

The premium career service Experteer has awarded the coveted "Headhunter of the Year" award in Munich to the best personnel consultants in German-speaking countries. The award recognizes the best recruitment agencies in Germany for outstanding achievements in various categories, such as Executive Search, Candidate Experience and Client Experience.

Gese & Cie. Personalberatung GmbH and its international brands "headhunter-hamburg.com" and "headhunter-cologne.com" were awarded the "Recommended Headhunter of the Year" in the Candidate Experience category. In this category recruitment consultants convince candidates in the areas of initial contact, position accuracy, consulting, know-how and professionalism.

The entire team is particularly pleased about the pronounced appreciation by their own candidates. Dipl.-Psych. Sebastian Wolf, Head of Executive Search, is satisfied: "We manage to build up a lot of trust with integrity and serious work".

"The success of each personnel consultancy depends in particular on the candidates, who are hired sustainably and long-term with mandates," adds Dipl.-Ing. Conrad C. Gese and is pleased about the award: "We also thank our many international clients, without the one so high satisfaction of the candidates would not be possible."
