rent24 coworking starts at LGH Hotels

Germany (ots) -

Coming soon, a coworking offer from rent24 will be available at 14 of the LGH Holiday Inn Hotels. The global operating coworking and coliving provider is expanding its location network in the UK to enable business travelers to work comfortably while traveling. "We are thrilled that we are able to collaborate with LGH which enables us to offer our fantastic concept and to create a win-win situation for our rent24 members as well as the hotel guests," says Robert Bukvic, founder and CEO of rent24.

In addition to London, hotels in Cambridge, Edinburgh, Cardiff, Glasgow and Oxford will benefit from the partnership.

Utilizing space to create a great coworking atmosphere has been a core strategy for the ongoing LGH refurbishment program with open lobby concepts already completed in a number of properties. "We are excited to be leading the way in the hotel sector with embracing the coworking ethos. Our collaboration with rent24 will offer our customers a new and innovative experience within our meeting spaces," LGH states. The allocated space will feature coworking amenities as well as high speed internet and printer. "Above all, we focus on the flexibility and comfort that we would like to offer to a broad target group," says Bukvic. "In addition to travelers, short- and long-term users also residents will profit from the rent24 experience and community network as well as its innovative space-management- technologies."
