Brenntag Signs Distribution Agreement with Elementis Specialties

Brenntag Canada Inc., part of the Brenntag Group (ISIN DE000A1DAHH0), the global market leader in chemical and ingredients distribution, has signed an agreement with Elementis Specialties Inc. for distribution in Canada.

The product lines are used in industrial and architectural coatings, sealants, adhesives, inks, and construction products. They include rheology modifiers, slip and leveling additives, defoamers, wetting and dispersing additives, and fall under the following tradenames:

- Bentone®, Bengel®, Benathix®, Benaqua®, Baragel®: Bentonite and Hectorite Organoclays
- Dapro®: Defoamers
- FinnTalc®, PlusTalc®: Talc
- Nuosperse®: Wetting and Dispersing Agents and Humectants
- M-P-A®: Anti Settling Agents
- Thixatrol®, Thixcin®: Organic Thixotropes
- Rheolate®: Associative Thickeners
- SlipAyd®: Slip and Leveling Additives
- Dumacil®: Hydrophobic Silic
- Nalzin®: Anti-corrosive Additive

"We, at Brenntag Canada, are thrilled Elementis has chosen us as their distributor," says Stephen Regular, Director of Coatings & Construction, Brenntag Canada. "Their high performance and versatile product line, reputation in various markets, and commitment to customer service will further strengthen our position as the preferred solutions provider to our customers."

Elementis has over 150 years in the industry, providing ingredients for industrial and consumer markets. The company operates across five business segments: Chromium, Coatings, Energy, Personal Care, and Talc.

"We are excited about this new relationship and have no doubt Brenntag Canada will be a great channel distributor for Elementis for all our end-users," Troy Russell, Director of Coatings in the Americas, Elementis Specialties explained. "We are particularly excited about the experienced leadership, strong sales team, technical capabilities, and broad geographical footprint that makes up the Brenntag Canada value proposition."
