Brenntag UK & Ireland and Dr Suwelack to expand their distribution relationship in the region on the Milk & More product range

Effective February 1, 2021, Brenntag Food & Nutrition, UK & Ireland has been appointed as the sole distribution partner for Dr Suwelack's Milk & More product range. This partnership will allow customers to access Dr Suwelack's extensive portfolio of dried milk specialties through the Brenntag Food & Nutrition, UK & Ireland network.

This step further strengthens the relationship between Brenntag Food & Nutrition and Dr Suwelack in the UK and Ireland, building upon the long-standing partnership the two organizations have enjoyed in other countries of EMEA. The Dr Suwelack product portfolio enhances the rapidly expanding portfolio of specialty food ingredients of Brenntag Food & Nutrition in the UK & Ireland.

Nicola Boulter, Director Brenntag Food & Nutrition, UK & Ireland, said: "We are delighted to form an alliance with Dr Suwelack on their comprehensive range of products bringing together the expertise, infrastructure and creative innovation capabilities of Brenntag's team and the overarching expertise of Dr Suwelack. We look forward to developing and broadening relationships with our existing and new customers, meeting the needs of their existing and new product requirements and generating new product development projects."

Brenntag Food & Nutrition UK and Ireland dedicated team of industry professionals is fully supported by Brenntag's UK Food Application & Development Centre which works on the development of innovative formulations, whilst keeping up to date with market trends and legislation.

Florian Stegemann, Sales Manager Business Unit Milk & More at Dr Suwelack, adds: "Brenntag Food & Nutrition has a deep market understanding and a strong presence in the region. We are impressed by their facilities and capabilities and how they manage complex supply chains whilst remaining close to the customer. We are very excited about this collaboration, because it allows two market leaders to join forces to better serve food manufacturers in the UK and Ireland. We are convinced that the customers will benefit from this new initiative."
