Elements of Nature: THOMAS SABO supports The European Nature Trust (TENT)

Lauf/Pegnitz (ots) -

To mark the launch of the Rebel at heart line Elements of Nature, THOMAS SABO is supporting The European Nature Trust (TENT) by donating 10,000 euros of the proceeds from the new Collection.

The men's jewellery Collection interprets the elements and the associated zodiac signs in handcrafted, geometric pieces of jewellery.

"TENT reflects the spirit of adventure that our Rebel at heart jewellery symbolises. We want to make a contribution to supporting long-term and sustainable nature protection projects", says Thomas Sabo, chairman of the company.

Paul Lister, founder of TENT: "Together with THOMAS SABO, we get a lot of people interested in our projects. Among other things, TENT offers trips to wild areas of Europe and is a pioneer in terms of sustainable travel."

The Elements of Nature Collection will be available worldwide from 15th March 2021 in all THOMAS SABO stores, shop-in-shops and in the online store at www.thomassabo.com.
