London, Zurich, New York SAXO BANK OF ART opens the world's largest art exhibition.

In shapes, colors, tones and scents, the Saxo Bank of Art presents the super artist of the future on internet platforms.

Heiko Saxo, the original: Visionary, Concept Creator, Inventor, Constructor, Watch Designer, Car Designer, Performer, Painter, Writer, Composer, Producer.

Heiko Saxo founded the Saxo Bank of Art in London. The Saxo Bank of Art is already supported by shareholders and corporations internationally.

Heiko Saxo has created 10,000 original works of art internationally in 40 years, which are now for sale in the original and millions of copies.

"Value Art" is already traded in the USA, England, Scandinavia and the rest of Europe.

The most sought-after objects of "Value Art" include the Jean Paul Getty Cadillac sculptures, Ferrari 250 GTO sculptures and Porsche 911 sculptures.

His 24ct Gold Crude Oil Artworks have already been sold.

The Queen Elizabeth Perfume Artwork is one of the highlights of the collection.

The German, Heiko Saxo, created art objects for over 4 decades. He painted various Power Paintings that hang in Buckingham Palace, St James's Palace, Clarence House, Westminster Abbey. Formerly also with Michael Jackson, Siegfried & Roy and Muhammad Ali.

He composed symphonies for Queen Elizabeth II and Queen Mum. For Bernie Ecclestone, Heiko Saxo created The Grand Prix Symphony for Formula 1.

Saxo builds sculptures out of Aston Martin and gilds the engines. More than 500 vehicles painted by Heiko Saxo are on the roads around the world.

There were gold and platinum for music CD's of the Box Arena Hymns for Box Champ Graciano Rocchigiani and the Finnish heavyweight champ Tony Viking Halme.

His inventions in motorsport are not only known in Monaco. Flying Porsche, Lamborghini submarines and water ski Bugattis are available on his gold-plated MiG 23.

His patents such as 12 and 10 piston-cylinder units in wristwatches are currently the state of the art in the Swiss watch industry.

The European male, Saxo's latest creation, will announce the current stock exchange prices on Hello John TV.
