Sven Thölen of RADIO NRW elected as new member of the dpa Supervisory Board

Hamburg (ots) -

Sven Thölen is a new member of the Supervisory Board of dpa Deutsche Presse-Agentur. Previously, the Managing Director of RADIO NRW GmbH was a co-opted member. Dr. Nadja Scholz, Managing Director of Programming at Deutsche Welle, was newly co-opted to the board. Both changes were announced today by Germany's largest news agency after its 74th shareholders' meeting in Hamburg.

At the end of her regular three-year term, Gerda Meuer (Deutsche Welle), the current Secretary, will leave the Supervisory Board and retire. David Brandstätter (Main-Post), Chairman of the Board since 2014, Daniel Schöningh (Münchener Zeitungs-Verlag), and Johannes Werle (Rheinische Post Mediengruppe) were elected to the dpa Supervisory Board for a further three years. The new Secretary is Dr. Stephan Kolschen (Ernst Brune GmbH).

About dpa:

The German Press Agency (dpa) was founded in 1949 and is one of the world's leading independent news agencies. dpa supplies media outlets, businesses and other organizations with editorial content, including text, photos, videos, graphics, audio and other formats. As an international agency, dpa reports in seven languages. The company has around 1,000 journalists at some 140 locations in Germany and abroad. Its shareholders are about 170 German media companies. Staff work according to the principles outlined in the dpa statute: independently from ideologies, businesses and governments. The central editing desk, under the leadership of Editor-in-Chief Sven Gösmann, is located in Berlin. The management team, headed by President & CEO Peter Kropsch, is based in Hamburg. The Chairman of the Board is David Brandstätter (Main-Post GmbH, Würzburg).
