Unique integration of next-generation whistleblowing platform SpeakUp® in CRISAM® GRC platform

Hamburg (ots) -

People Intouch, the leading provider of next-generation whistleblowing solutions, and CRISAM®, the state-of-the-art GRC software, are delighted to announce their strategic partnership to deliver a groundbreaking integration of whistleblowing functionality into CRISAM's powerful governance, risk and compliance platform.

In an era when organizations face increasing risks and regulatory scrutiny, the collaboration between People Intouch and CRISAM® aims to empower businesses with comprehensive tools to effectively identify, manage, and mitigate risks while ensuring a safe and ethical work environment for employees.

The integration of People Intouch's whistleblowing solution SpeakUp® within CRISAM's risk management platform will allow organizations to better manage corporate risks. It is proven that whistleblowing reports are an important source of data for effective risk management.

Key features of the integrated solution include:

1. Whistleblowing Integration: Seamlessly incorporate People Intouch's next-generation SpeakUp® solution within the CRISAM's GRC platform, and enable employees to securely and anonymously report concerns.
2. Centralized Risk Management: Access a single, unified platform to manage risk and whistleblowing processes, see a holistic view of potential threats, and fosters a culture of transparency and accountability.
3. Real-time Analytics and Insights: Leverage advanced data analytics to identify emerging risk trends and patterns, take proactive measures, and drive informed decision-making.
4. Regulatory Compliance: Ensure compliance with industry regulations such as the German Whistleblower Protection Act (GWPA) and the ISO 31000.

Commenting on the partnership, Maurice Canisius, CEO at People Intouch, said, "We are excited to collaborate with CRISAM and provide businesses with a game-changing solution that seamlessly integrates whistleblowing into their overall risk management framework. This unique offering will empower organizations to foster a culture of ethics, compliance, and risk mitigation, ultimately safeguarding their reputation and stakeholders' trust."

Andreas Schmitz and Tim-Benjamin Bohmfalk, both Managing Directors at CRISAM®, added, "By combining CRISAM's state-of-the-art risk management capabilities with People Intouch's next-generation whistleblowing solution, we are delivering a powerful toolset for organizations to proactively address risks and ensure a safe and ethical work environment. This partnership represents a significant step forward in integrating critical components of governance, risk, and compliance."

The integrated solution from People Intouch and CRISAM® is available to customers since 21 June 2023. To learn more about the partnership and the innovative whistleblowing and risk management solution, visit peopleintouch.com or crisam.net
