Successful placement by KfW of exchangeable bonds due 2014, exchangeable into shares of Deutsche Post AG

Frankfurt (ots) - KfW, through a syndicate of banks led by BNP Paribas and Morgan Stanley Bank AG, has successfully placed EUR 750 million in bonds (the "Exchangeable Bonds") exchangeable into ordinary registered shares of Deutsche Post AG (the "Exchange Shares").

The Exchangeable Bonds have a maturity of 5 years and pay a coupon of 1.5% p.a. The initial exchange price was fixed at EUR 13.8605 per Exchange Share equivalent to an exchange premium of 35%. The bonds are exchangeable into Exchange Shares from the first interest payment date (after one year). Underlying the Exchangeable Bonds are 54,110,602 ordinary shares of Deutsche Post AG, or approximately 4.5% of the company's currently outstanding share capital. The Exchangeable Bonds are callable by KfW after the third interest payment date (after three years), subject to a 130% call threshold, and are redeemable at 100% of par at maturity.

"In consultation with the Ministry of Finance, KfW decided to take advantage of the currently favourable conditions for equity-linked instruments and bring an exchangeable bond to the market", commented Dr. Frank Czichowski, KfW's Treasurer. "Demand for high quality credit in combination with a very liquid underlying allowed us to price an Exchangeable Bond at very attractive terms."

KfW has agreed to a 180-day lock-up period for its remaining stake in Deutsche Post AG.
